

Suggested Interview Questions For James Wanless, Ph.D., Sustainability and Creativity Coach

1. What is "self-sustainability"?
2. What are the key "sustain-abilities"?
3. What are the challenges to being sustain-able?
4. How do these cards work?
5. Can a person use these cards for themselves, or only for other people?
6. Once I've had a reading with these cards, what do I do with that information?
7. How do I learn to read these cards?
8. How can I use these cards to create more of what I am seeking in life?
9. How can I use these cards to get rid of what's not working in my life?
10. How do these cards fit into real life, not just some theoretical way of living?
11. The cards have titles and key words. What are the key words about?
12. How can I (and my audience) use these cards to navigate life in the 21st century?

Suggested Introduction For James Wanless, Ph.D.

James Wanless, PhD (Political Science, Columbia University) is an internationally recognized and best selling author, keynote speaker, futurist and consultant. He is an internationally known coach and creativity consultant, teaching strategic goal-setting and innovation techniques to corporations and individuals worldwide.

In his SUSTAIN YOURSELF CARDS, James weaves natural and timeless wisdom with modern-life practicality to guide you along a revolutionary path towards living a whole life, becoming truly self-sustaining personally, professionally, and socially. Dr. Wanless' books include Voyager Tarot: Intuition Cards for the 21st Century; Way of the Great Oracle; Strategic Intuition for the 21st Century; Intuition@Work; New Age Tarot; and Wheel of Tarot: a New Revolution. He teaches the online correspondence courses "Way of the Seeker" and "Way of the Seer," and his columns appear in alternative newspapers nationwide.

Dr. Wanless will share the concepts of self sustain-ability - a new way of living to maximize possibilities and potentials in ourselves and our lives to achieve our goals of happiness, health, wealth, and spiritual fulfillment. Listen, and be ready to be inspired!